Charming home is a retreat

Formerly at Peppers Calstock, Deloraine, Remi and Ginette Bancal have moved to Glencoe Guest House, at Barrington, which is a charming traditional Australian farm house with beautiful and peaceful gardens overlooking majestic Mt Roland on the edge of Lake Barrington.

Glencoe is blessed with wonderful attractions and activities within easy reach including garden tours, horse riding, hiking, fishing, bush walking, antiques and wineries.

Remi and Ginette have completely renovated and redecorated Glencoe in a French country style. The house's friendly and intimate atmosphere will make visitors feel at home as soon as they step in. Glencoe has four en-suite guest rooms, a guest lounge, breakfast and casual dining room.

As well, the property will be opened during the day as a garden cafe, serving light and traditional French cooking. Remi and Ginette will offer their guests a traditional French provincial dinner, available by pre-booking only.

Remi and Ginette have a highly regarded background in hospitality having spent many years at the Ritz in Paris, Mietta's in Melbourne, and Banc in Sydney, as well as seven years at Calstock at Deloraine.

The four en-suite guest rooms are available for $155 a night with breakfast until December 20, 2006, then $175 a night with breakfast until August 2007.
